SEPTEMBER 12, 1875 of finance is now looming colitical horizon, and it is m the both of the political parties many in which the Democrats ore reen generally successful. As the draws nigh, each party is endeavring to gain a vantage ground from which a damaging fire can be buried onen the other. The first reconnoissame in force preparatory to a final struggle is now being made in the State | CO-OPERATIVE ENTERPRISE-MANU. of Ohio by the Democrats and Conservsiive Republicans against the Radical forces. Each feels that there are many weak-kneed men who will be greatly influenced by a decisive victory in that State, and each are putting forth their most important subject, and so remodels ntmost strength, so as to attain a position from which they can claim to be the winning side. The Radicals are claiming to be the hard-money party, after having flooded the country with paper promises to pay, their ring-men and governmental pets and pimps having gobbled up the great bulk of it under shoddy contracts, credits mobilier, landgrabbing swindles under railroad subsidies, and plundering of the people generally. And after having turned their money into the treasury and obtained tile bonds of the government for it, which bonds draw interest in gold, these men have the impudence to insist
